A feature-packed program that offers protection against all the major threats lurking around on the Internet and includes extra goodies such as a VPN tool, parental control component, and more. Being as fascinated as we are with the latest advancements in technology, we are often so caught up that we tend to overlook their harmful potential. Not that showing an instinctive suspicion towards progress would be a solution. It is a balanced approach that we should aim for so that we can enjoy all these benefits while keeping out of harmâ??s way. Panda Dome Advanced is the kind of product that builds a bridge between these two major aspects since it allows you surf the Internet while making sure your digital life is not compromised in any way.
