Microsoft Publisher

Microsoft Publisher is a straightforward and inexpensive tool for desktop layout creation, intended for crafting professional-looking print and digital assets no requirement to employ advanced graphic programs. Unlike typical document editors, publisher enables more accurate element placement and enhanced design capabilities. The system features a variety of pre-made templates and customizable layout arrangements, enabling quick initiation of work for users lacking design skills.

Skype for Business

Skype for Business is a business communication tool for online messaging and virtual cooperation, uniting messaging, voice/video communication, conference calling, and file transfer capabilities under a single safety measure. Evolved from Skype to better serve corporate communication needs, this infrastructure provided organizations with tools for effective communication inside and outside the company in light of corporate security, management, and integration standards with other IT systems.

Microsoft Word

A powerful software for creating, editing, and formatting text documents. Supplies a wide array of tools for handling formatted text, styles, images, tables, and footnotes. Allows for real-time joint work and includes templates for quick initiation. You can create documents with Word effortlessly, starting from zero or using the many templates available, covering a range from resumes and letters to reports and formal invites. Setting up typography: fonts, paragraph formatting, indents, line spacing, lists, headings, and styles, supports making your documents more understandable and professional.

Microsoft OneNote

Microsoft OneNote is an electronic note organizer built for fast, convenient collection, storing, and arranging of ideas, thoughts, and notes. It pairs the simplicity of a traditional notebook with the innovations of current software: you can enter text, add images, audio clips, links, and tables here. OneNote can be used effectively for personal notes, school, work, and group projects. With the integration of Microsoft 365 cloud, data automatically synchronizes across all devices, supporting access to data from any device at any time, whether it's a computer, tablet, or smartphone.
